Raindance Co-Production Forum:
Focus on Italy
Call for Entries 2017

Raindance Film Festival, ICE (Italian Trade Agency), ANICA (Italian National Association of Film and Audiovisual Industry) and MiBACT (Italian Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism), in partnership with Variety, announce the call for entries to the third Co-Production Forum at Raindance, with a focus on Italy.

UK independent producers, distribution, production and sales companies are invited to join Raindance on this unique opportunity, to meet and partner with Italian producers and create new co-production business opportunities.

Guidelines:

1. The Raindance Co-Production Forum: Focus on Italy will be held from 21st to 22nd September within the activities of the 25th edition of the Raindance Film Festival in Central London.
2. Only projects received within the deadline of the 12th of July and which cover all the guidelines will be eligible for revision and selection.
3. Only projects presented by production companies will be considered.
4. All projects received must be feature fiction or documentary projects that have not yet been filmed, that have a finished script and at least 20% of financing in place.
5. The organizing partners have the right to include projects by direct invitation.

6. Raindance Film Festival will screen and select the projects to be invited at the co-production forum. The decision taken regarding the selection will be final.

7. The participation in the Forum is free of charge.

8. The call for entries will remain open from now until July 12th.

9. The invitation made to each project will remain strictly confidential between the Raindance Film Festival, its partners and the producers or representatives of the project until when the Festival decides to make an official announcement in this regard.

10. The results for the selected projects will be published by end of July and published on the websites www.raindancefestival.org.

11. Selected projects must confirm their participation and attendance to the Forum by August 4th, in the case of failing confirmation, their participation will be automatically cancelled and a runner-up will be selected.

12. Once production of the projects is complete, those responsible must include the Raindance Co-production Forum logo in the credits of the definitive copy. This logo will be available on the festival official website.

Our Calendar:

- Call for Entry – Now to 12th of July
- Review and selection of projects - 13th-26th July
- Invitations sent to selected producers 26th of July
- Selected producers/directors to accept invitation by 4th of August
- 3-night stay in London - 20th-22nd September 2017

The Selected Projects are entitled to:

a. One to one meeting with British and European professionals (producers, film fund representatives, sales agents, script writers, actors, talent agencies etc.) at pitching sessions and they will receive a personal agenda of appointments with professionals.

- b. An invite to take part to Live Ammunition! The Raindance signature event, that gives producers the chance to pitch their movie idea directly to a panel of top film executives.
- c. The inclusion of the project's and the participation representative's information in both the Raindance Co-Production Forum and Industry catalogues.
- d. Promotion of projects and their representatives on partner Magazine VARIETY
- e. Two Industry Accreditations per project. The representatives of each Project must be its director-producer. Only two representatives per project.
- f. Reimbursement of up to 700 € to cover travel expenses and 3-night stay in London from 20th-22nd September 2017 (breakfast included) in one of the Festival's hotels for one delegate per project. The payment will be granted only upon reception of documentation (i.e. Festival Badge, flight tickets, hotel reservation) proving attendance to the festival.
